- are a United States citizen
- are a resident of Vermont
- are 18 years old

You are not officially registered to vote until your Town or City Clerk reviews your application to be sure that you meet all eligibility requirements. The Clerk will notify you in writing if your application is approved and notify you of the location of your polling place. If your application is denied, the Clerk will notify you explaining why you are not eligible and also explain how you can file an appeal to the Board of Civil Authority in your Town or City. If you have questions, you may call the Office of the Secretary of State at 802.828.2363 or visit sos.vermont.gov/elections/voters.
